Eternal Cosmos, our Fellowship Spiritual Teacher from the inner planes, often stated, “Your Subconscious Mind runs the show.” What does this mean?

Why is the cooperation of your Subconscious Mind important to fulfill your life plan?

As in your human relationships, your Subconscious Mind, if nourished with love, patience, and compassion, can be your partner, friend and teacher. However, if ignored, your Subconscious can retreat, become recalcitrant, escape, or retaliate against you harming and even destroying your physical body.

Through visualization and experiential exercises, you will recognize the healing power of your Subconscious and the magical power of manifestation that you can tap into and become more balanced and secure within yourself, your relationships, and your spiritual purpose.

If you are not familiar with the Three Selves approach to the Field of Consciousness, we highly recommend you read our book, Pathways to Your Three Selves.

William Miller has been a member of the Fellowship since 1973, studying and practicing the Three Selves work with the guidance of Dr. Wayne Guthrie and Dr. Bella Karish, teaching classes, conducting prayer meetings, and assisting Dr. Bella Karish in the Three Selves Counseling sessions.

William is a student of the Mysteries, and along with the Three Selves work, has been involved with Self-Realization Fellowship and many other metaphysical schools of thought. He holds a lifetime California Community College Teaching Credential and is a Certified Literacy Trainer.
